explain itself. WARRENTON, Va., Sept. 18 Messrs. R. R. Campbell and C. M. White: Gentlemen.-I have considered the matters submitted to me and make reply as follows:

By statute law, Code 1887, section 12, amended Acts 1887 '88, page 16, each magisterial district of the county, and each ward in the city, unless the county or ward be divided into more election districts than one, and when then thus divided, each subdivision of the magis-terial district and each subdivision of the city ward becomes and is made an "election district." The voter must be registered in the election district in which he resides, and "residence" is "the crucial test" of the right to be registered. Once placed upon the register in the district of residence the voter must re main thus registered until he changes his residence, and without change of residence there can be no transfer of the voter (section 80, Code of Virginia, 1887, page 94. Amended Acts 1889 90, page 189)

So your "first question" I answer, applying these principles: Voters can only register in the election district in which they reside.

To your "second"—that once regis tered, the voter cannot be trans'erred without he changes his residence from one voting place to another: As I read and construe the law "voting place and "election district" mean the prescription or other preparations."

same locality.
To your "third," I construe (a stated above) "election district" and "voting place" or "precinct" to be ore and the same place.

To your "fourth question:" New Baltimore being a sub-division of "Centre Magisterial District," set apart as a "voting place" or "precinct," is an "election district." Where the boundaries of the sub-divided and new di-tricts are not defined voters, may elect "the voting place," and thus chosen b - comes their "election district" or "vo:ing place" Very respectfully yours, R. Taylor Scott.

> TRAGEDY IN A BAGNIO.-A sensatims agreed to tragically end their troubles and their lives together. The suicides were D. Harry Sollars, Cripple Creek, Colo., and Cleo Russell, an inmate of the house only 19 years old. No one saw the shooting. Inmates of the house were attracted to the room by two reports of a revolver fired in rapid succession. Bursting the dcor of the room, they found the girl, Cleo Russell, half dressed on the bed, blood spurting from a wound in the left breast. Sollars lay dead on the floor, c inching a thirty-eight-calibre revolver, a bullet wound in his left breast.

On the table lay a check, as follows: DENVER, Colo., Oct. 14, 1896. First National Bank. Pay to the order of Cash five hundred dollars. D. HARRY SOLLARS.

This is for our funeral expenses. D. HARRY SOLLARS.
The Russell girl is in a critical condition, the bullet being near the heart. Her home was formerly Celina, Ohio. Sollars has relatives at Washington Courthouse, Ohio, and is said to have an interest in a mine at Cripple Creek, Col. He had been in Cincinnati only a f .w days.

Mrs. Rhodie Noah, of this place, was taken in the night with cramping pains and the next day diarrhoea set in. She took half a bottle of blackberry cordial but got no relief. Another of our neighbors had been sick for about a week and had tried different remedies for diarrhoea but kept getting worse. I sent him the same remedy. Only four doses of it were required to cure him. He says he owes his recovery to this wonderful medicine.—Mrs. Mary Sibley, Sidney, Mich. For sale by L. Stabler & Co., Druggists.
